As she glides along the southland, through hills and by the shore.
Hear the mighty rush of engines, hear the lonesome hoboos call,
Travelin' through the jungles on the Wabash Cannonball.

Oh, the Eastern states are dandy so the Western people say,
From New York to Chicago, St. Louis by the way.
From the hills of Minnesota where the rippling waters fall,
No chances can be taken on the Wabash Cannonball.

Here's to Daddy Claxton, may his name forever stand,
And may he be remembered in the courts throughout our land.
When his earthly race is over and the curtain 'round him falls,
We'll carry him on to victory on the Wabash Cannonball.

JOHN B. SAILS

We come on the sloop John B., my grandfather and me.
Around Nassau town we did roam.
Drinkin' all night, got into a fight.
I feel so break-up, I wanna go home.

Chorus:

So hoist up the John B. sails, see how the main sail sets,
Call for the captain ashore, let me go home.
Let me go home. I want to go home.
I feel so break-up, I wanna go home.

The first mate he got drunk, broke up the people's trunk,
Constable had to come and take him away.
Sheriff Johnstone, please let me alone.
I feel so break-up, I wanna go home.

The poor cook he got the fits, threw away all of my grits,
Then he took and he ate up all of my corn.
Let me go home, I wanna go home,
This is the worst trip I ever been on.

ST. JAMES INFIRMARY

It was down in old Joe's barroom on the corner by the square.
The drinks were served as usual and the usual crowd was there.

On my left stood big Joe McKennedy, his eyes were bloodshot red.
He took a look at the crowd around him, these are the words he said.

I went down to St. James Infirmary, I saw my baby there.
Stretched out on a long white table, so still, so cold, so fair.

Let her go, let her go, God bless her, wherever she may be.
She may search this wide world over, never find another man like me.

When I die, please bury me in my hightop Stetson hat.
Put a $20 gold piece on my watchchain so the boys'll know I died standing pat.

And now that you've heard my story, I'll take another shot of booze.
If anyone should happen to ask you, I've got the gambler's blues.

HOUSE OF THE RISING SUN

There is a house in New Orleans that they call the Rising Sun.
It's been the ruin of many a poor girl and Lord I know I'm one.

My mother was a tailor, she sewed those new blue jeans,
My father was a gambler, down in New Orleans.

The only thing a gambler needs is a suitcase and a trunk,
And the only time he's satisfied is when he's on a drunk.

Go tell my baby sister not to do like I have done,
But to shun that house in New Orleans they call the Rising Sun.

I'm goin' back to New Orleans, my race is nearly run,
Goin' back to spend the rest of my life beneath that Rising Sun.

Tell her to wash it in yonder well...
Where water ne'er sprung nor drop of rain fell,
and then she'll be...

Tell her to dry it on yonder thorn...
Which never bore blossom since Adam was born,
and then she'll be...

O will you find me an acre of land...
Between the sea foam and the salt sea land,
and then she'll be...

As I walked out in Laredo one day,

Wrapped in white linen as cold as the clay.

These words he did say as he saw me ride by.
Come sit down beside me and hear my sad story,
I'm shot in the breast and I surely must die.

It was once in the saddle I used to go dashing,
Once in the saddle I used to go gay.
First to the dram-house and then to the card house,
Got shot in the breast and I'm dying today.

Get six jolly cowboys to carry my coffin,
Six pretty maidens to bear up my pall.
Put bunches of roses all over my coffin,
Roses to deaden the clods as they fall.

Beat the drum slowly and play the fife lowly,
Play the death march as you carry me on.
Take me out to the graveyard and throw the sod o'er me,
For I'm a young cowboy and I know I've done wrong.
